

governing bodies and definitely an arena where the ready mix concrete industry voice should be heard.

Lastly remember that the association is nothing without membership input. I congratulate all those who commented or provided feedback (good or bad) over the past year; it is welcomed and necessary. It has been stated countless times before but I will bring it up again: this is YOUR association. Also consider this issue of The Mixer one of many opportunities to network, be heard or simply advertise your business. This is relatively inexpensive proposition considering your target audience is exactly the same people who are reading the articles. See you soon in Lacombe and have a safe and enjoyable summer.
